Certification authority's responsibilities

LAWtrust management are responsible for their assertion, including the fairness of its presentation, and the provision of its described services in accordance with the WebTrust Trust Service Principles and Criteria for Certification Authorities v2.2 and those provisions contained within Chapter 3 of the Accreditation Regulations of the Electronic Communications and Transaction Act of 2002.

Our independence and quality control

We have complied with the independence and other ethical requirements of the Code of Professional Conduct for Registered Auditors issued by the Independent Regulatory Board for Auditors (IRBA Code), which is founded on fundamental principles of integrity, objectivity, professional competence and due care, confidentiality and professional behaviour. We conducted our procedures in accordance with International Standard on Assurance Engagements 3000 (Revised), Assurance Engagements Other than Audits or Reviews of Historical Financial Information, issued by the International Auditing and Assurance Standards Board. This standard requires that we plan and perform our procedures to obtain reasonable assurance about whether, in all material respects, management's assertion is fairly stated, and, accordingly, included:

Relative effectiveness of controls

The relative effectiveness and significance of specific controls at LAWtrust and their effect on assessments of control risk for subscribers and relying parties are dependent on their interaction with the controls, and other factors present at individual subscriber and relying party locations. We have performed no procedures to evaluate the effectiveness of controls at individual subscriber and relying party locations.

Inherent limitations

Because of the nature and inherent limitations of controls, LAWtrust's ability to meet the aforementioned criteria may be affected. For example, controls may not prevent, or detect and correct, error, fraud, unauthorised access to systems and information, or failure to comply with internal and external policies or requirements. Also, the projection of any conclusions based on our findings to future periods is subject to the risk that changes may alter the validity of such conclusions.

Opinion

In our opinion, throughout the period 01 October 2020 to 31 December 2020, LAWtrust Management's Assertion, as referred to above, is fairly stated, in all material respects, in accordance with the WebTrust Trust Service Principles and Criteria for Certification Authorities v2.2, and those provisions contained within Chapter 3 of the Accreditation Regulations of the Electronic Communications and Transaction Act of 2002.

This report does not include any representation as to the quality of LAWtrust's services beyond those covered by the WebTrust Trust Service Principles and Criteria for Certification Authorities v2.2, and those provisions contained within Chapter 3 of the Accreditation Regulations of the Electronic Communications and Transaction Act of 2002, nor the suitability of any of LAWtrust's services for any customer's intended purpose.
